one I hold on the other (A5000) house. So - it sounds very encouraging - I still don't know how much - or how long it will be,

I am busy planting, etc.
The weather is gorgeous and wish you were here to go swimming - which I am going to take a day off and do, soon.

Just Wilma has changed her sailing date - now 5/21/55 seems it. Still wants me to go - and maybe I can be ready by then. Will write, en case

Dear Bill:

Rec'd your note en français. I think it's wonderful you are able to retain so many languages and still be able to think in French and/or, of course, English.

I have not heard from either your father or Walker. I put in a collect call yesterday to Walker but - he did not answer.

they would raise the 1st mortgage by a $1000. to $1500. This would not necessitate escrow or title search fees - there will be some charge of course, but not anything like what another Co. would charge; even if they (other Co) gave me more, I would be better off with the Co. I have.

This is much better than a second mtge. and - in event I should sell, I could take back a smaller second than the Well - Thanks to your fifty, and hundred paid me fifty, on the $225. note she still owes me, this AM, so I may be able to hold out until I can get a refinancing on this house.

I had an appraiser yesterday for the same loan Co. which gave me the construction loan and, after talking with him, he seems to think
